Collection Notice under the Privacy Act

1. Mount St Benedict College collects personal information, including sensitive information about students and parents or guardians before and during the course of a student's enrolment at the College. This may be in writing or in the course of conversations. The primary purpose of collecting this information is to enable the College to provide appropriate educational opportunities to the pupil and to enable her to take part in all the activities of the College.
2. Some of the information we collect is to satisfy the College's legal obligations, particularly to enable the College to discharge its duty of care.
3. Laws governing or relating to the operation of schools require certain information to be collected and disclosed. These include relevant Education Acts, and Public Health and Child Protection laws.
4. Health information about pupils is sensitive information within the terms of the Australian Privacy Principles under the Privacy Act. The College may ask you to provide medical reports about pupils from time to time.
5. The College from time to time discloses personal and sensitive information to others for administrative and educational purposes including facilitating the transfer of a student to another school. This includes other schools, government agencies, Catholic Education Commission, medical practitioners, and people providing services to the College, including specialist visiting teachers, [sports] coaches, counsellors and volunteers.
6. If the College does not obtain the information referred to above we may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the student.
7. Personal information collected from students is regularly disclosed to their parents or guardians.
8. The College may store personal information in the "cloud" which may mean that it resides on servers which are situated outside Australia.
9. Parents may seek access to personal information collected about them and their daughter(s) by contacting the College. Students may also seek access to personal information about themselves. However, there will be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where access would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, where access may result in a breach of the College's duty of care to the students, or where students have provided information in confidence.
10. The College Privacy Policy also sets out how you may complain about a breach of privacy and how the College will deal with such a complaint.
11. As you may know the College from time to time engages in fundraising activities. Information received from you may be used to request your support. It may also be disclosed to organisations that assist in the College's fundraising activities solely for that purpose. The College will not disclose your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your consent.
12. On occasions information such as academic and sporting achievements, student activities and other news is published in College newsletters, magazines and on our website. Photographs of student activities such as sporting events, school camps and school excursions may be taken for publication in the College newsletters and magazines. The College will obtain separate permissions from the student's parent or guardian prior to publication if we would like to include photographs or other identifying material in promotional material for the College or otherwise make it available to the public such as on the internet.
13. The Archives department will, on occasion, publish photographs of ex-students on the College's website, social media pages, newsletters, magazines, displays and history publications.
14. The College may include student and students' parents' contact details in a Homeroom list to the respective Class Parents.
15. If you provide the College with the personal information of others, such as doctors' or emergency contacts, you are encouraged to inform them that you are disclosing that information to the College and why, so that they can access that information if they wish and tell them that the College does not usually disclose the information to third parties.
