

Student Online Communication Acceptable Use Policy

Preamble

Information and Communication Technologies at Mount St Benedict College are provided primarily for education purposes. These resources are made available to enhance the educational experiences of students and to provide staff with the tools necessary to implement and enhance the College educational program.

This document defines the guidelines for students at Mount St Benedict College for the appropriate and acceptable use of internet and online communication services provided by the College. This policy applies to all students who access internet and online communication services within the College and from any external location.

Objectives

- The internet provides an opportunity to enhance students' learning experiences by providing access to vast amounts of information across the globe. Online communication links students to a collaborative learning environment and is intended to assist with learning outcomes. Today's students are exposed to online communication tools and the internet in their community. They have the right to expect secure access to these services as part of their learning experiences at Mount St Benedict College.
- Use of the internet and online communication services provided by Mount St Benedict College is intended for research and learning and communication between students and staff. Access to internet and online communication tools at the College will assist students to develop the information and communication skills necessary to use the internet effectively and appropriately.
- Responsible use of the services by students, with guidance from teaching staff, will provide a secure and safe learning environment.
- Students using internet and online communication services have the responsibility to report inappropriate behaviour and material to their supervisors.
- Students who use the internet and online communication services provided by the College must abide by the College's conditions of acceptable usage.
- Students should be aware that a breach of this policy may result in disciplinary action in line with the College's discipline policy.

Responsibilities and delegations

Access and Security

Students will:

- not disable settings for virus protection, spam and filtering that have been applied to College provided technology.
- ensure that communication through internet and online communication services is related to learning.
- keep passwords confidential, and change them when prompted, or when known by another user.
- use passwords that are not obvious or easily guessed.
- never allow others to use their personal e-learning account.
- log off at the end of each session to ensure that nobody else can use their e-learning account.
- promptly tell their supervising teacher if they suspect they have received a computer virus or spam (i.e. unsolicited email) or if they receive a message that is inappropriate or makes them feel uncomfortable.
- seek advice if another user seeks excessive personal information, asks to be telephoned, offers gifts by email or wants to meet a student.
- never knowingly initiate or forward emails or other messages containing:
 - a message that was sent to them in confidence.
 - a computer virus or attachment that is capable of damaging recipients' computers.
 - chain letters and hoax emails.
 - spam, e.g. unsolicited advertising material.
- never send or publish:
 - unacceptable or unlawful material or remarks, including offensive, abusive or discriminatory comments.

- material which is threatening, bullying or harassing another person or making excessive or unreasonable demands upon another person.
- sexually explicit or sexually suggestive material or correspondence.
- false or defamatory information about a person or organisation.
- ensure that personal use is kept to a minimum and internet and online communication services are generally used for genuine curriculum and educational activities. Use of unauthorised programs and intentionally downloading unauthorised software, graphics or music that is not associated with learning, are not permitted.
- never damage or disable computers, computer systems or networks of the College.
- ensure that services are not used for unauthorised commercial activities, political lobbying, online gambling or any unlawful purpose.
- be aware that all use of internet and online communication services can be audited and traced to the e-learning accounts of specific users.

Privacy and Confidentiality

Students will:

- never publish or disclose the email address of a staff member or student without that person's explicit permission.
- not reveal personal information including names, addresses, photographs, credit card details and telephone numbers of themselves or others.
- ensure privacy and confidentiality are maintained by not disclosing or using any information in a way that is contrary to any individual's interests.

Intellectual Property and Copyright

Students will:

- never plagiarise information and will observe appropriate copyright clearance, including acknowledging the author or source of any information used.
- ensure that permission is gained before electronically publishing users' works or drawings. Always acknowledge the creator or author of any material published.
- ensure any material published on the internet or intranet has the approval of the Principal or her delegate and has appropriate copyright clearance.
- never download or share material for which they do not have appropriate permissions (example Movies and Music)

Misuse and Breaches of Acceptable Usage

Students will be aware that:

- they are held responsible for their actions while using internet and online communication services.
- they are held responsible for any breaches caused by them allowing any other person to use their e-learning account to access internet and online communication services.
- the misuse of internet and online communication services may result in disciplinary action which includes, but is not limited to, the withdrawal of access to services.

Monitoring, evaluation and reporting requirements

Students will report:

- any internet site accessed that is considered inappropriate.
- any suspected technical security breach involving users from either internal or external to the College.

Students should be aware that:

- their emails are archived and their web browsing is logged.
- the email archive and web browsing logs are considered official documents.
- they need to be careful about putting their personal or sensitive information in emails or on websites.
- these records may be used in investigations, court proceedings or for other legal reasons.
